A BIG THANK YOU TO DECORATING VOLUNTEERS

Terry and Patti Harrison would like to send a HUGE thank you to all of the VOLUNTEERS that came out to decorate the Cantina Clubhouse on November 26th. We were able to assemble and decorate 4 Christmas trees, put up the manger scene in the foyer, put out table decorations, set up the village scene along the window sills, decorate and hang wreaths on the walls and decorate the stage. A LOT OF WORK! But many hands made it possible to complete all of this in just one hour.

Terry & Patti Harrison, 556 Barcelona, 863-254-1205

REMINDER: DATE TO UN-DECORATE THE CLUB HOUSE IS JANUARY 3, 2019 AT 9:00 A.M. SEE YOU ALL THERE!!

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU

A great big thank you to all involved in making and bringing around the yummy cookies, hand made glass holder and the girls singing Christmas Carols to us. It is so nice living here in the Village. It made our day with the pleasant girls. Thank you again.

SUPPORT THE RIDE FOR TINY TOWN

Ride for Tiny Town is a bicycling fundraising event on Saturday, February 9, 2019 to raise money to build DeSoto Cares Homeless Services Village of Small Homes. It is not a drop in shelter—clients will have to apply for a home, and may stay there up to 2 years—but must complete steps on a regular basis toward gaining independence and a home of their own. Learn more about DeSoto Cares Homeless Services: <http://www.desotocareshomeless.com/news.html>.

There will be 15, 30 and 60 mile routes. Volunteer to help out at the event, register to ride—join my team—Gypsy Girl and Guy Rides—or create your own team.

To make a donation to DeSoto Cares go to: <https://www.crowdrise.com/ridefortinytown>.

Want to get in some practice riding? Meet up at Winn-Dixie parking lot at 7:45 a.m. Sunday mornings. (No ride January 13.)

SLEUTHS

If you love detectives, murder, mystery, forensic evidence, suspense, and solving crimes, think about coming to a new book club at Kathy Rasmussen's for a spirited monthly discussion. If this sounds like something you would enjoy, call her at 989-289-3698. How about Thursday afternoon from 3:00 to 4:00, gender neutral, for the first meeting? Starting date would be the last Thursday in January. Let's try Lee Child's, Make Me, a Jack Reacher novel, for our first one? At our first meeting we can compile lists for your favorite authors and choose our next selection as a group.

COME JOIN US FOR ONE OF THE MOST REQUESTED CRUISES

ORANJESTAD, ARUBA

Welcome to Aruba—or as the locals say, Bon bini. Here Dutch traditions mix with island charm. The capital and port town of Oranjestad, is best known for its colorful Dutch Colonial “gingerbread” houses painted in bright Caribbean hues. While Aruba is only 20 miles from tip to tip, it is packed with incredible contrasts. Cruise to Aruba and go from relaxing in a tropical paradise to trekking rugged desert in no time. The southern coast is one giant photo op—a bustling port town surrounded by powdery white beaches and crystal-clear aquamarine waters. To the north, waves crash onto a rocky coast, scattered with cliffs, cacti and divi-divi trees. Best of all, you don’t have to choose which spots to hit—just which to hit first.

KRALENDIJK, BONAIRE

It’s always sunny in Bonaire, where the days last nearly twelve hours and the adventure never ends. The countless coral reefs surrounding its shores are home to more than 400 species of marine life, earning it the nickname “Diver’s Paradise.” But for some of the best snorkeling, head to the islet of Klein Bonaire. Or hop on a glass-bottomed gondola for prime undersea views—no swimming required. Cruise to Bonaire and do some onshore exploring at Washington Slagball National Park., which covers a fifth of the island. With its dramatic desert landscape, mangrove lagoons, famous pink flamingos and unrivaled dive spots, Bonaire offers endless outdoor adventures—along with a healthy dose of colonial charm.

WILLEMSTAD, CURACAO

Curacao is a treasure trove of cultural attractions, rich history, and natural scenery—from desert landscapes and rugged cliffs to 38 spectacular, and mostly secluded, beaches. Sint Anna Bay separates the two sides of the capital of Willemstad. Punda, the original settlement, is a tidy grid filled with shops and unique markets, restaurants and open-air cafes. Not to mention the famous tropicalized Dutch architecture in vibrant hues. Otrobanda (literally, “the other side”) is a maze of narrow streets and even narrower alleyways. And at only 40 miles long, a wide variety of island adventures are within easy reach during your Curacao cruise.

Christmas Lights/Decorations Winners

The AV residents gave the entertainment committee a difficult time deciding this year's Christmas decoration winners. Our Village is the best spot around for decorations. Remember, if you won in the last two years, you were not eligible this season.

We give a big thank you to the following businesses for their generous donations for our Christmas decoration winners. Please, winner or not, let these businesses know that Arcadia Village appreciates that they were willing to donate to us. (believe us – they notice) Magnolia Street Seafood & Grill, Beef O'Brady's, Chili's, Pizza Hut and the Entertainment Committee donated two show tickets.

An honorable mention also goes out to the office for the Manger scene.

Here are your 2018 winners;

Lot #40 Kyle & Fran Coultis
Lot #96 Dave & Tandy Hall
Lot #116 JR & Rhoda Smith
Lot# 430 Kevin & Lynne Callanan
Lot #497 Jerry & Pat Stip
Lot #805 Ed & Evelyn Vancuren

Congratulations to All of our residents!!!!

THE VILLAGE PEOPLE ARE COMING!!!

The Village People are arriving and looking forward to meeting you on January 26th at the Cantina. Come on out and meet the Village People at this exciting event.

We will start with a laid back open social hour from 6:30 to 7:30 pm. Chat with your neighbors, take advantage of photo opportunities with Village People and enjoy some munchies. This is a BYOB event.

At 7:30 pm it is time to kick up your heels and dance your shoes off to some hits you have come to know and love.

If you are new to the park this is an excellent way to get acquainted with your neighbors. Due to maximum occupancy restrictions, we ask that residents only attend (no outside guests). If you have registered guests staying with you, they are certainly welcome to join us.

We hope to see you on January 26.

10 Steps to Help Protect a Spouse

COUPLES CAN EASE THE BURDEN ON TOMORROW'S SURVIVOR BY DISCUSSING KEY FINANCIAL MATTERS TODAY. HERE ARE STEPS TO GET YOUR AFFAIRS IN ORDER

1. Gather financial papers. Store deeds, passports, insurance policies, estate documents and the latest statements from financial accounts in a fireproof box at home, where survivors can easily find them.
2. Make a "must call" list. Compile contact information for your accountant, lawyer and other financial professionals who need to be contacted when a spouse dies.
3. Share passwords. Keep a master list of all usernames and passwords so your spouse can still have access after your death.
4. Update beneficiaries. Make sure beneficiary designations for your pension, 401(k), IRA, brokerage accounts and life insurance proceeds still reflect your wishes.
5. Check credit cards. Make sure your name is on the credit card account. In most states, when your spouse dies, you won't be responsible for any debt on a card that's not in your name. But you also won't be able to use it, and will have to reapply for credit in your own name.
6. Set up advance directives. You both will need health care powers of attorney to designate the person you want to make medical decisions on your behalf if you are incapacitated. You'll also need a living will that spells out what measures you want the doctor to take to prolong your life.
7. Designate a money person. Each of you will need a financial power of attorney so you can name a trusted person to make money decisions for you if you're unable to do so.
8. Review wills and trusts. Do this every few years or when there's a significant change in your life, such as a sizable increase or decrease in your finances. If you don't have a will, get one.
9. Discuss funeral plans. This can save thousands of dollars by letting the surviving spouse—who may need the money—know it's OK not to choose the most expensive funeral.

10. Learn how bills are paid. Keep a list of how bills are paid so the survivor doesn't miss a payment or overdraw an account.

GOLF NEWS

The basis for ball mark repair and divot replacement is for competitive and agronomic reasons. Balls that land in unrepaired divots place a golfer at a disadvantage, just as having to putt over a ball mark. By leaving turf damaged (unrepaired), it becomes susceptible to disease and/or infestation of weeds, resulting in a lower quality of playing surface. This necessitates the need for attention by golf course greens keepers, thereby taking them away from more pressing duties. As a general rule, a ball mark repaired within 10 minutes will heal with a smooth surface within two to three days. An unrepaired ball mark may take as long as three weeks to heal, but the result will be an uneven surface.

You should have your orange tags for golf by now. Please try to have your tags prominently displayed when you are on the course. We will be making tours of the course to check tags and we want your help so we can see your tags.

RUBBER STAMPING CLASSES ARE STARTING!!

The fall season of our rubber stamping classes have begun. Wednesdays from 1:00-3:00 pm and Thursdays from 9:00-11:00 am and 1:00-3:00 pm. All classes make the same project. If you are not familiar with rubber stamping, it is an activity that uses paper, art rubber stamps, ink and a bit of creativity to make greeting cards and small 3D projects. We have a wonderful group of women who enjoy learning new techniques and making something you can actually use AND that doesn't collect around the house!

Please feel free to call me for more information or to schedule which class group you would like to attend. Registration is limited due to seating constraints. Come on by to visit and see the items we have planned to make. If you are new to Arcadia Village please stop by and see what we are about! I'd love to meet you! All classes are held at my home and will be $5.00 /class. All materials are provided.
