This pandemic is new for everyone involved from professionals on down the line. The Guidelines are coming to all of us from various location, facilities, agencies, and media sources. The amount of information in over whelming and the guidelines can be daunting. We are doing everything we can here in the office to make it as simple, comfortable and easy for everyone as possible. There will be a few times that we have to put out a message that may sting, but nothing is permanent and it will all heal in time. Your patience, understanding and compliance is greatly appreciated.

Golf Course News:

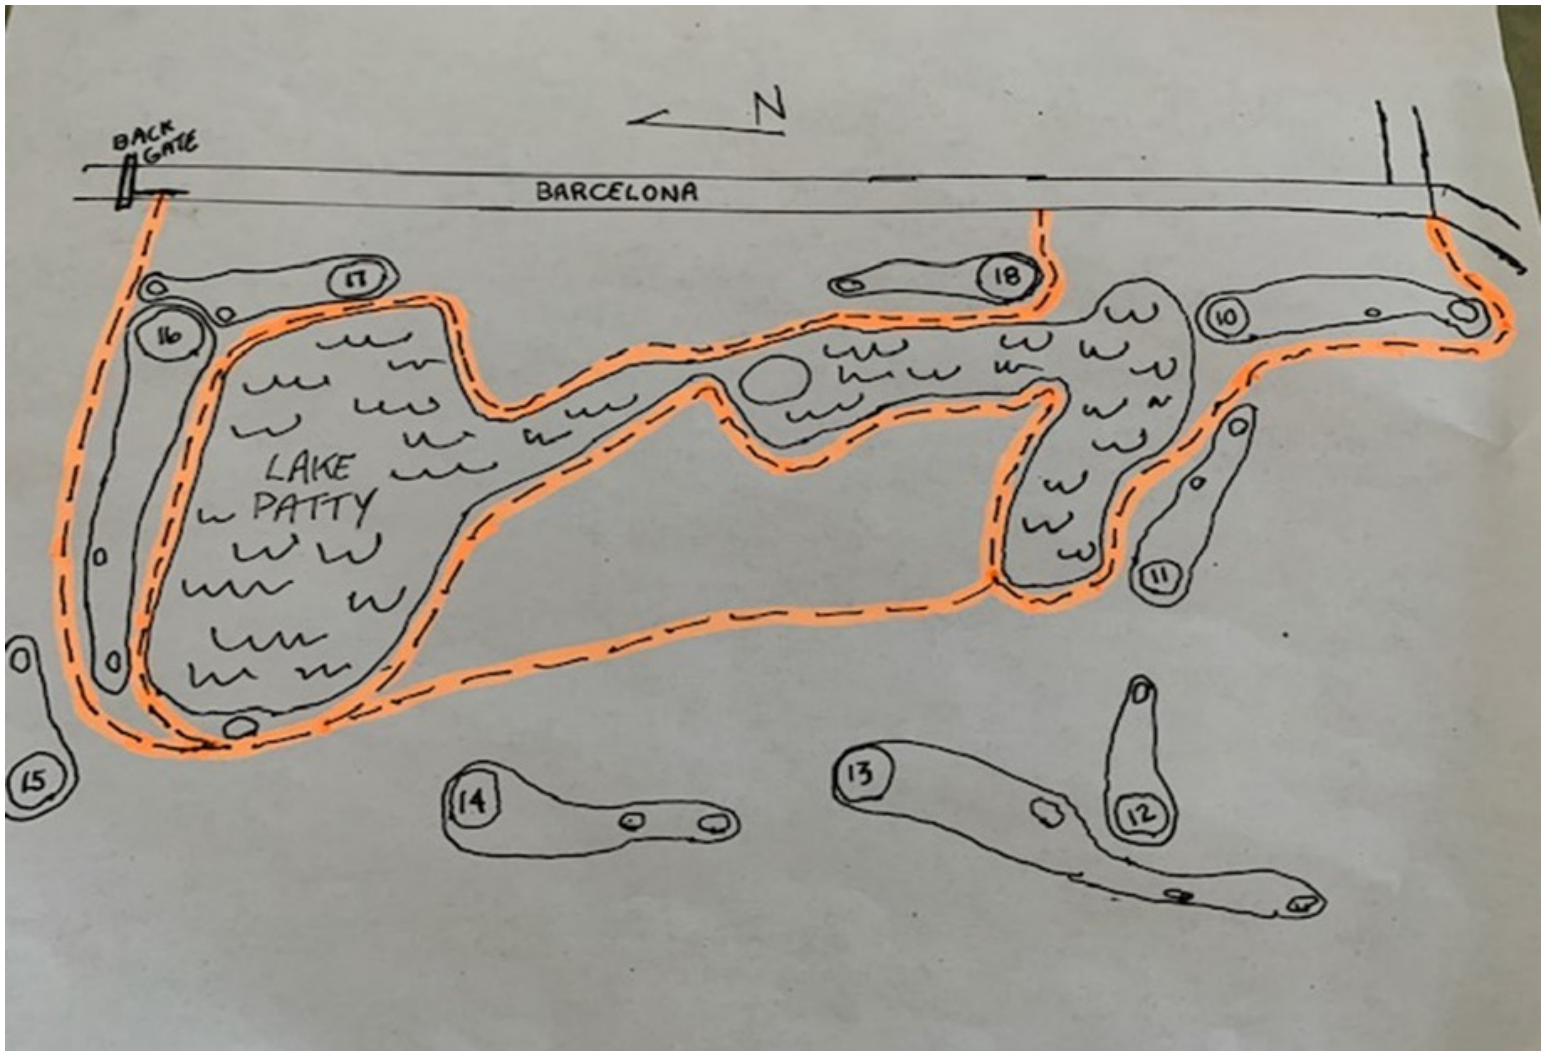

Looks like we are coming into the quieter season for the golf course as many of our northern friends have headed back north. The course is going through a great deal of Maintenance right now. New sod has been added in key tee box areas as well as a new grass trap on hole 14. Special thanks to all the volunteers who helped in completing the task. Now we all need to complete a dance for rain which is desperately needed.

We continue to have a problem with people just out for a ride who have no idea where they are going or in some cases, just don't care. We have dedicated roads around the lake which is meant for riding. (See Below) The golf courses are for golfers ONLY! We are all doing our part in social distancing and keeping everyone safe on the golf course by adding a few nuances.

Thanks in advance for everyone's understanding as we really want the course to be in Tip Top shape when everyone returns next fall and this Coronavirus is behind us.

Enjoy the summer!

CINCO DE MAYO (meaning 5th of May or May 5th)

In the United States, Cinco de Mayo, or May 5, is seen as the day to celebrate Mexican food, culture, and traditions. Of course, it's also a great excuse to enjoy some Mexican drinks. Many who celebrate in the U.S. assume—incorrectly—that Cinco de Mayo is Mexico's Independence Day.

In contrast, Cinco de Mayo in Mexico is celebrated in a very low-key manner. Students get the day off, but banks and government offices are open. So why is Cinco de Mayo celebrated with such fanfare in the United States? As with many holidays, a lot of the celebration is due to marketing.. People across the U.S., whether of Mexican heritage or not, use the day as an excuse to eat Tex-Mex cuisine, drink Mexican beers, and prepare pitchers of margaritas, and the holiday is often associated with partying.

MOTHER'S DAY (May 10th)

Mother's Day is a celebration honoring the mother of the family, as well as motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society. It is celebrated on various days in many parts of the world, most commonly in the months of March or May. It complements similar celebrations honoring family members, such as Father's Day, Siblings Day, and Grandparents Day.

The modern Mother's Day began in the United States, at the initiative of Anna Jarvis in the early 20th century. This is not (directly) related to the many traditional celebrations of mothers and motherhood that have existed throughout the world over thousands of years, such as the Greek cult to Cybele, Rhea the Great Mother of the Gods, the Roman festival of Hilaria, or the Christian Mothering Sunday celebration (originally a commemoration of Mother Church, not motherhood). However, in some countries, Mother's Day is still synonymous with these older traditions.

The U.S.-derived modern version of Mother's Day has been criticized for having become too commercialized. Founder Jarvis herself regretted this commercialism and expressed views on how that was never her intention.

HAPPY Mother's Day

MEMORIAL DAY (May 25th)

Memorial Day (previously but now seldom called Decoration Day) is a federal holiday in the United States for remembering and honoring the military personnel who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. Many people visit cemeteries and memorials on Memorial Day, particularly to honor those who died in military service. Many volunteers place an American flag on each grave in national cemeteries.

Memorial Day is considered the unofficial start of summer in the United States, while Labor Day marks the unofficial start of Autumn on the first Monday of September. By the late 1860s, Americans in various towns and cities had begun holding springtime tributes to these countless fallen soldiers, decorating their graves with flowers and reciting prayers. It is unclear where exactly this tradition originated; numerous different communities may have independently initiated the memorial gatherings. Nevertheless, in 1966 the federal government declared Waterloo, New York, the official birthplace of Memorial Day.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE!!
